

PRESS NOTE

COVID-19

Bologna, 26th February 2020 - Marzocchi Pompe S.p.A., a leading company in the design, production and marketing of high performance gear pumps and motors, wishes to express its solidarity with the people affected, directly or indirectly, by the Corona Virus COVID-19 outbreak, with the hope that the emergency can be contained as soon as possible.

With reference to the situation created following the Corona Virus COVID-19 epidemic, the Company informs that as of today there are no problems in the production and shipping of its pumps and motors all over the world, also because they are exclusively Made in Italy products with a high percentage of "make" using components coming exclusively from Italian and European suppliers.

Marzocchi Pompe S.p.A. also announces that its participation in the IFPE Conexpo Fair in Las Vegas is confirmed on 10.03.2020, thanks to the presence of colleagues from Marzocchi Pumps USA.

Finally, we inform that Marzocchi Pompe S.p.A. has decided to suspend all company trips for the next two weeks, waiting for updates from the Italian authorities. This decision was taken as a precautionary measure for the health of its employees, partners and their families.

We are confident that this temporary and particular situation will be contained in a short time and that our Region will soon resume normal activities.
